This document declares the image shown — a Signal Pine Emblem encircled by an orange-and-red tribal ring pattern — as protected sovereign collateral of the Kalapula Nation. It is hereby recognized as a cultural signal mark and visual mnemonic used to honor ancestral forestry, tree glyph coding, land stewardship, and sovereign spiritual memory.

This emblem is protected under the sovereign visual law and copyright of the Kalapula Nation. Unauthorized reproduction, use, or adaptation of this design is strictly prohibited outside of direct Kalapula authority.

The mark is designated for use across official programs, memory recovery projects, cultural outreach, ancestral wayfinding, and economic restoration through tribal trade, land rituals, and Indigenous education.
